

USDC (ERC20) USDC (TRC20) USDC (SOLANA)

A USDC Mixer, also known as a USDC Tumbler is an online service helping USDC owners to regain privacy over there USDC

The most way to buy cryptocurrencies such as USDC, is through an so called "exchange". An exchange should not store the USDC using their

The process described as a security feature, is actually a trick from the governments forcing those exchanges to collect and share those personal information with them.

Since that date and because the information that you used to USDC is public, those having your ID will be able to watch your wallet and how much you spend for your own funds.

However, there is a legal way to gain back your crypto privacy. It's called a USDC Mixer.

How does USDC mixer work?

USDC Mixer can bypass wallet controls and work in two ways.

They will use one of their liquidity pool to receive your USDC and then they will use another of their liquidity pool to provide you with other tokens. The token you will receive on your new wallet after that mixing procedure will not be related to your original blockchain.
